The News from The Hill

SUMMER TERM WELCOME BACK

Welcome back everyone to the Summer Term and what a scorching, sunny start we've had. As you know, I'm currently not on site after an injury but I'm looking forward to being back on site very soon. I've been heavily involved virtually in the meantime too. Our Year 6s have their SATs this month and I know all our Abbeyhillian family will be wishing them lots of good luck as they get ready for this part of the great big Year 6 adventure!

SUNNY SAFETY

As we move into Summer and have these hotter days, please help us to keep Abbeyhillians safe by remembering:

- A sun hat
- A filled water bottle
- Sun cream

UNIFORM REMINDER

We kindly ask that children do not wear Crocs as school shoes. This is a health and safety issue.

Also, children should only wear simple stud earrings. Exceptions can only be made for medical or religious reasons. Thanks for your cooperation.

POETRY PUBLISHERS!

We're excited to say our Abbeyhillians from Nursery to Year 6 are going to be involved in a VERY exciting project with author Gareth Baker.

Continuing our school tradition of becoming professionally published authors, this time pupils are going to be producing a book of free verse poetry all about their futures! This work will take place in the last week of this half term and the book will be on sale and launched in late Summer!

TRIPS AND EVENTS

There are lots of events and planned this term, ranging from local walks, to trips to the farm to our Year 6 residential! Please keep an eye out for letters and communication about these and return slips promptly. We, like you, are keen to ensure our Abbeyhillians get lots of opportunities and experiences.

SPORTS DAYS

We are currently finalising dates for Sports Days and will confirm these with you very soon.

SYSTEM CHANGES

In the coming weeks, one of the systems school uses for the register will be changing provider. It may briefly impact on some of the work in the office. We thank you for your help and patience whilst our lovely office team get up and running with this!
